

5 Things You Need to Know About the Early Retirement Incentive (ERI) Right Now

1.

Governor Cuomo signed the ERI bill into law, but the City of New York and/or the NYC Board of Education (DOE) must opt in to participate in the ERI.

2.

The City must opt in to the ERI and establish who is eligible under Part A by June 30, 2021.

3.

The DOE must opt in to the ERI and establish who is eligible under Part A by May 31, 2021.

4.

If an ERI is authorized, it will be easier for eligible members to file via their MyNYCERS account. Register for MyNYCERS and download the app today!

5.

The most up-to-date ERI information will always be available on the NYCERS website, so bookmark it and check it often.
